

Log Home Gutted By Flames

Friday, February 23, UPDATED: 12:57 p.m.
By Ryan Leckey

Fire destroyed a log cabin early Friday morning in Lycoming County and officials first thought the man who lived there may have died in the fire.

The house near Williamsport went up in flames around 2:30 a.m.

The home is in the 2000 block of Mill Hill Road in a remote area of Lycoming Township. Crews said someone spotted the fire and called for help.

Click for larger image

Old Lycoming Township police said Michael Fink, 48, lived in the house. He cannot be found.

The coroner was called to the home and a special dog was brought in to help find a body. Nothing was found and officials believe no one was home when the fire started.

Old Lycoming police want to hear from anyone who may know the whereabouts of Michael Fink. They can be reached at 570-323-4987.

The cause of the fire remains under investigation.